Acts 16:22-34

The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was an earthquake so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" They answered, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. He brought them up into the house and set food before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

Did You Feel the Mountains Tremble Delirious?

1. Did you feel the mountains tremble? Did you hear the oceans roar when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ the risen One?

2. Did you feel the people tremble? Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ the saving One?

Pre-Chorus:

And we can see that God You're moving, a mighty river through the nations
And young and old will turn to Jesus; Fling wide, you heavenly gates!
Prepare the way of the risen Lord!

Chorus:

Open up the doors and let the music play
Let the streets resound with singing
Songs that bring Your hope, songs that bring Your joy
Dancers who dance upon injustice

3. Do you feel the darkness tremble
When all the saints join in one song
And all the streams flow as one river
To wash away our brokenness?

Pre-Chorus

And here we see that God You're moving, a time of jubilee is coming
When young and old return to Jesus / Fling wide you heavenly gates
Prepare the way of the risen Lord → to Chorus
