

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord) Matt Redman

Chorus:

Bless the Lord, oh my soul, oh my soul
Worship His holy name
Sing like never before, oh my soul
I'll worship Your holy name

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me
Let me be singing when the evening comes [Chorus]

2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger
Your name is great and Your heart is kind
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing
10,000 Reasons for my heart to find [Chorus]

[Instrumental]

3. And on that day when my strength is failing
The end draws near and my time has come
Still my soul will sing Your praise unending
10,000 Years and then forever more [Chorus]

Ending:

Worship Your holy name
Lord I'll worship Your holy name

What If All You Need is Love? Brady Toops

1. What if all you need is love

What if all you need is love to save your soul

To take control

What if all you need is love

What if all you need is love to understand

To hold your hand

Chorus:

And this love, it gets better

Will pick you up when you fall down

And this love, it gets sweeter,

It'll turn your world around

2. What if all you need is love

What if all you need is love when you're alone

To get back home

What if all you need is love

What if all you need is love to help you see

To get you free [Chorus]

[Instrumental interlude]

Outro (3x):

When you fall down / when you fall down

Will pick you up when you fall down

Mark 6.14-29 (NRSVUE)

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus's name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead, and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed, and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests, and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved, yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.
